Conceptual situation
Commitments and protected successes Tension and diagnosis
What creates the difficulty?
ordinary task
conceptual change
reframe
Ordinary work
Concepts are adequate Rival transformations Objects, identities and relations revise
new constraint
incubate, revise Reflection and comparison Objections and preserved differences no preference
or revise all justified programme
or plural set Diagnostic alternatives
No preference; revise or incubate
Research programmes Consequences and new obligations named question
Specific support task
Proof, countermodel or observation